John C. MacDonald, New
Aldermanic Candidate,
Has Metropolitan Ideas

IN FAVOR OF RECALL

Advocates Election of Commissioners
by the People—Has Lived in Edmonton for 10 Years

Municipal politics there taken a trend towards the adoption of metropolitan ideas, as is shown in the platform of John C. MacDonald, who announced to the Capital this morning that he had decided to become a candidate for alderman.

Mr. MacDonald enjoys the distinction of being the first candidate to endorse in toto the commission form of government as it is carried on in California and Des Moines.

He places himself on record as believing in favor of the commission being elected by the people and subject to recall, and stands for applying the recall to mayor and aldermen.

Mr. MacDonald has been a resident of the city for the past ten years and in addition to building up a flourishing business for himself has found time to delve into and take a deep interest in municipal affairs.

The platform upon which he is based his candidature is entirely dissimilar from the platform which have been down in the past in that it provides for the adoption of some principles which will guide the ruling powers when the city has doubled its population in size.

F. J. Chamberlin, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway
this morning denied to the Capital
the story that the railway had purchased a site for a million dollars on McDougal avenue, as reported in one of the afternoon papers a few days ago.

Mr. Chamberlin was a visitor to the government buildings this morning and had a conference with the pre-

TEST STABILITY OF THE RIVER BANK

Engineers Department Seek Solid
Spot for New East End Bridge.

A staff of men from the engineer's department are now engaged in drilling test holes in the river bank on the bankers' side, directly opposite Water street, in order to ascertain whether or not the soil at that point is sufficiently stable to carry the abutments for the semi-high level bridge which it is proposed to erect over the Saskatchewan. City Engineer Laird stated to the Capital this morning that the bank at that point had a tendency to slide and if it is found that it will not carry the southern portion of the bridge it will be necessary to select a new site.

As soon as the test work is completed the engineer will submit his report to the committee.

EIGHT TIMES A PRESIDENT.

Mexico City, Dec. 1.—With guerrillas throughout Chihuahua and northern Mexico still menacing his dictatorship, Porfirio Diaz was sworn in here today for the eighth time as President of Mexico. Contrary to the former custom, no public jubilation marked Diaz's induction into office. The population was barred from the hall of congress and only the diplomatic corps and high state officials heard Diaz and his Vice-president, Ramon Corral, repeat the oaths of office.

Following the ceremonies at the hall of congress, the presidential party proceeded to the national palace, where the two executives received presidents, diplomats and small delegations representing private interests. Apparently fearing outbreaks during the progress of the president's inauguration, strong bodies of police and rurales were held in readiness throughout the city.

STILL A CANDIDATE.

Speaking of the report, published in one of this morning's papers, to the effect that he had decided to retire from the aldermanic race, G. H. May stated to the Capital this morning that the article was without foundation and had been published without his authority. "I am still a candidate, said Mr. May, and am content to let the citizens decide whether or not they desire me to represent them on the aldermanic board. As to the statement, credited to me, that I was retiring because there were too many candidates in the field and that the municipal elections were becoming somewhat of a farce, I am sorry to say that the report was not being made up by the press but deliberately manufactured."

LINE WOULD PAY FROM THE START

LONG HORSEBACK TRIP

Prospector Tells of Much Discussed Country—Left Edmonton Six Months Ago.

"Was a railway into the Ft. McMurray district would prove a paying proposition from the very start was the statement made by Wilbur Arnett,
a prospector who arrived in the city last evening after having covered the inter distance between this city and Mc-Murray on horseback.

Mr. Arnett left Edmonton some months ago on a prospecting trip to the north country and during that time he has had an opportunity of sizing up the resources of the country.
There is an abundance of fine land,
lying on either side of the proposed road, all the way to McMurray, said
Mr. Arnett, and once a railway start-actual construction seeders would be into the district, the land on either side of the railway for fifteen miles
it would be taken up long before the line could possibly be completed with the result that by the time the railway was ready to commence operation there would be an abundance of freight both going into the country and coming out.

Mr. Arnett corroborated the story in a recent Capital to the effect that there were inexhaustible quantities of tar sand and high grade asphalt in the McMurray district and expressed the opinion that if it were only to tap
these resources alone the railway would more than pay expenses.

"As it is now, intending settlers are prone to locate in the Peace River district, hundreds of miles from a railway, as they are of the opinion that one of the transcontinental lines will tap that district before there is a railroad to the north of the city.

The speaker was of the opinion that a great mistake would be made if the province failed to make arrangements for the construction of a road as it would mean that a line would be run out of that road, but it would be improbable that a line would be constructed for some years to come as there would be too much competition.
Consequently the line would remain idle and McMurray would remain undiscovered and uncultivated while hundreds of miles away would be settled up more rapidly.

agreeing to take out a license and consequently to prevent further alleged

Plea of Laborer Who Was Sentenced in Police Court This Morning.

In police court this morning A. W.
McLean, a laborer who was a month ago had been working on the G.T.P.
grade, was sentenced to three months
at Fort Saskatchewan at hard labor.

McLean was convicted on one charge of stealing a grip from the C.N.R. station platform, three other charges for a similar offence not being pressed by the Crown. The prisoner's defence was that he had broken down while working on the grade and since his arrival in the city had been unable to find any work which he could do in his weakened condition, consequently he resorted to theft in order to gain money enough to live on. He will be taken to Fort Saskatchewan by the Mounted Police to-night.

DISCUSSED NEW SCHOOL

The building and school management committees of the Edmonton school board held a meeting last evening at which it was agreed that the new Henrick street school building should have a capacity of at least twenty-two rooms, the plan to provide separate buildings for each grade.
The architect was instructed to prepare a number of drawings from which the committees will make a selection.

PUBLIC FEELING ACUTE

Prisoner Alleged to Have Con-

Trenton, N.J., Dec. 1.—After a thrilling trial, a half-breed Indian and negro,
suspected of the murder of the Rev.
Amos A. Armstrong and his wife, who collapsed early to-day. It was reported around the jail where he is confined that he had made a complete confession. The police refused to confirm this report, but will admit that he made damaging statements, and that they would not make out a complete case against him.

Because of the intense feeling against Sears and the fact of his being sentenced, the police are attempting to calm public opinion.

According to the report of the confession, generally accepted as true, Sears said that he murdered the 80-year-old minister and his wife at the Presbyterian manse at Dutch Neck, nine miles east of this city, rob them of $2 in money and a gold watch. At the end of the examination the accused man, who has been in the Arson family since he was two weeks old, was too weak to stand and had to be carried to his cell from the room where Prosecutor Wm. J. Cruikshank and the police had questioned him without intermission for a sum of money received yesterday. The prosecutor went out by the ordeal and suggested as he left the jail.

Bondholders' Representatives Here to Watch A. & G. W. Affairs

Stated He May Make Protest on Behalf of Morgans
For Using Money for Other Purposes Than

Can it be that the bondholders of the Alberta and Great Waterways railway are also going to take action against Premier Sifton's policy of appropriating the A. and G. W. money for the public funds of the province?
This morning there registered at one of the hotels of the city, the legal representative of the bondholders who purchased the $7,000,000 of A. and G. W.
bonds, namely the House of Morgan,
New York. This representative has made one or two trips to the city,
chiefly in connection with the payment of interest on the bonds. On June 22nd he came to the city to appear for the payment of the half-yearly interest on the bonds and on December 1st, he came to the city to appear for the payment of the half-yearly interest on the bonds.

Now this representative is here to watch proceedings on behalf of the bondholders. Whether they intend to move to prevent the appropriation of Premier Sifton, in order to protect those who bought the A. and G. W.
securities or the money markets of an American citizen.

Strathcona, Dec. 1st.—The "roarin' curling rink to-night. The draws for the first series are made between the President's and Vice-President's rinks

and this opening struggle will no doubt be watched with considerable interest. The ice is in first class condition, having been in the making for the past two weeks. Improvements have been made for the better accommodation of the curlers and there is every assurance that the present winter will see the most successful curling ever carried through in the city.

Recreation Reading Rooms.
One of the insistent needs of the city is an establishment of a Y.M.C.A.,
and this movement has unfortunately dwindled away without taking concrete form in every instance during the past two years that it has been brought up. The demand for accommodation of this nature is recognized and in a measure met by the local churches, but the number of young men benefited in this wise is necessarily limited. The Men's Brotherhood of Knox church is the most successful organization along this line, having enjoyed a splendid growth in the last few months under the direction primarily of Professor Edwards.
So rapidly has the membership extended that rooms have been secured for recreation purposes on Whyte avenue. The rooms are in the P.
Burns' block, where gymnastic apparatus will be installed and facilities provided for a comfortable reading room.

It was just at the conclusion of Mr. Bennett's speech on the Waterways bill, and he had gone down stairs to the library. Then Mr. Cornwall moved the third reading and the house agreed. The bill was finally passed, and will be assented to at once.

Is it because the premier wants to cover the province's overdraft in order to satisfy the province's bankers, that he is in such haste to divert the Waterways money from the railroad construction account to the general account of the province?

FIRST HOCKEY OF THE SEASON

Deacons, Y. M. C. A. and Several of the Mercantile Teams Had Initial Practices

The Thistle Rink presented quite a mid winter appearance last evening when the several city hockey teams had their initial workouts of the season. From seven to eight the Somerville Hardware team of the Mercantile League performed on several new speed merchants were introduced to the hockey fans of Edmonton, who lined the sides about two hundred strong. Scotty Macleod was in charge of the practice and had over a dozen players in uniform.

At eight o'clock the Deacons Ekloms started straining on the ice and it looked as if they would never stop coming. Seventeen men in all were out and there is material already for two good teams. The team were chosen last night, then with Geo. Benjamin handling the dinner bell and Manager Young looking on with a broad grin, the team had a bumper and tongs for an hour with a small breathing space at half time. It was no kid glove practice and body checking was a feature of the play. Jack Oliver lost his balance on one occasion and took a bad fall, cutting a long gash in his leg, which required the services of a physician to fix up.

The famous trio, McCann, Dea and Gordon Banford along with Leavens lined up on the forward line. The regulars had as defence Bishop Oliver and Court May. The other defence was R. A. Lines in goal, Jack Lines at point and Melross at cover.

The boys were in fairly good shape considering it was the first practice of the season, though their combination and shooting was very much to the front. However, in two weeks' time watch this team and see the improvement. Among the players out last night were many newcomers to the ranks of the Deacons. Melross, who played cover for the Calgary Tigers last season made a good impression as did Lehman, who has played for the Canadian Soo and is a brother of the famous pro goal keeper, Lines, Gordon and Oliver, of last years J. H. Morris team showed that they have not forgotten any of their hockey knowledge. Court May and Goodrich will play with the University seven and were just out getting a little practice.

At nine o'clock Pete Barley's Y. M. C. A. bunch who were runners up last winter for the city championship, took the ice and now faces a new role rather than the exception. Of last year's septette Wright, Chown and Roy Douglas were the only ones on hand last night though Roy Burns will be at the next practice.

Besides several dark horses that Pete will spring at a later date, he had out last night—Wright, Chown, Douglas, Lyons of last year's Queens Ave. team, Fred McKenney, Cornsack, Miller, Goodrich, Nicholson, Scholfield, and several others. The players and at the end were glad to get to their dressing room.

The Bankers did not practice last night but Hum Aldous has called the first turnout for this afternoon at five o'clock. Jim Taylor who has received his amateur card after a two years' wait will play for the Bankers, as will Chris and Fred McKenney.

OLD CAP. ANSON.

Connie Mack Delighted to Put One Over on Old Cap Anson

(Hal Chase)
Cap Anson was in the other day, and one night after a game on the Hilltop, we got into talking about great backstops. Anse told me that in his opinion the quickest thinking man who ever wore the mask.

Connie Mack, now manager of the Athletics.
When Mack was with Pittsburgh, Gumbert was trying in a game against Chicago. The latter team, with two-out, had the bases filled and Anson was up. The old man was the terror of all pitchers in that day, for he was a perfect judge of a hand and would never swing at a bad one. On this day Gumbert was a trifle wild, and the first two balls he pitched to Anson were wide.

The next two came the plate, but Anse felt both pass, as it never worried him if he had two strikes on him. It was a critical situation, for if Gumbert put the next ball over, it was a cinch that the old man would hit on it hard, and perhaps break up the game. Mack thought it was up to him to do something, to let him run down to Gumbert, and whispered to him to pitch the next ball out a little wide of the plate, and then stay in position to pitch, waiting for a signal from him.

Gumbert curved on about a foot wide of the plate and Anson never moved to hit it. He felt confident that he would be given his base on balls, which would force in a run and win the game.

"Good strike, Ad!" yelled Mack, as he grabbed off his mask and started for the bench, as though the side was out, and the game over.

"Strike!" shrieked Anson, wheeling around to the umpire to protest. "I didn't say so," remarked the arbitrator. "Three balls."

Mack meanwhile had surreptitiously tossed the ball back along the ground to Gumbert, and before Anson could turn back into position, Mack gave the sign to his pitcher to whip the ball straight across the plate. Nothing in Connie's attitude told that he was expecting the pitch. He didn't have his mask on, and he wasn't in position to catch, for he had been standing three yards away from the plate to distract Anson's attention. The ball came as Connie had signaled, right across the plate before Anson had time to get his hat off his shoulder.

"Three strikes," yelled the umpire. Mack just managed to knock the ball down and touch the home plate, thus retiring the man who was on third.

Anse kicked and stormed, but there was no reversing the decision, for he had not stepped out of the box, time hadn't been called, and Gumbert had been in a legal position to pitch when the ball was delivered.

JIMMY CALLAHAN'S STORIES OF SPORTS AND SPORTSMEN

(By James Callahan.)

Of all the situations where the professional ball player can have fun, the worst, when he started the best. In managing a big league ball club, or a semipro club, for that matter, at different times during the season you are sure to be tempted out by a committee of countrymen who have come to the city to get talent, to come and look some adjoining town team. Now there is always secrecy and being attached to these contests. They will tell you they are going to bet $4000 or $5000, and they want the best.

The committee usually is made up of the local barber, cigar store keeper and the saloonkeeper sport. After teams are arranged and the method of stealing into the town and the disguise is provided for, the fun starts. The barber probably has a barber all over him, and they have turned to skin. He is a brother lodge member or he gave him a strip, or something has occurred to form a "terminal" and he slips him the office note to bet and tells all that is coming off. Then it is murdered. Instead of $4000 or $5000 changing hands, about $40 is bet.

You see, the barber who has been told is not going to look like a wise fellow unless he tips it and the stuff is off. He does this in the most mysterious and unobtrusive way. The pitcher of the hour and pointed out as the wise fish and a "dressed herd" to liver with the "stick" you are "in Dutch" also.

They are the most suspicious lot in the world of city ball players, and time and again if the money wasn't handed over first and the game is lost no money will be coming. They expect more from professional ball players than they can really do, as the difference is not so great in his ability as they lead themselves to believe. Again, those Rubens with a good pitcher who has control, as he is over the plate for them, and on some of their grounds it is worth your life to take a chance.

WHERE THE PREMIER MADE A VERY BAD GUESS

As circumstances multiply the evidence it commences to become obvious that Premier Sifton did not understand very clearly the nature of the undertaking on which he was embarking when he proposed to divert the bond guarantee money away from the fund in which it was placed to another fund to be used for another purpose.

R. B. Bennett, the Conservative geyser of oratory, stated the point pretty clearly in the house yesterday when he said that the money had been placed on deposit in a trust fund for the purpose of constructing a railway and that the government now proposed to write a check on that deposit for $7,400,000, and thereby take the money out of the trust fund altogether, to be used for an entirely different purpose.

Following this system out to its logical conclusion, the government has just as much warrant to start issuing capital expenditure checks against the school funds of the province or the funds in the chancery courts.

Besides making a bad guess when he thought a railway from Edmonton to Fort McMurray was not wanted, the premier has evidently made a bad guess about how the intention to squelch the railway should be carried out.

A PHASE OF THE CONTROVERSY WORTH CONSIDERING

In the controversy that is being waged over the railway question there is one point that seems to have been overlooked. That is, the question of whether or not the premier really has the power to divert the money borrowed for the purpose of building a railway to some other purpose?

It is a constitutional tradition that the government is all-powerful, that it can do as it pleases; that it might, for instance, appropriate a man's house and that the injured party would have no right to redress unless he procured a fiat from the attorney-general to permit him to sue the crown.

That rule is well enough as far as it goes, but there are limitations, especially geographical ones.

In this case it seems doubtful if the provincial government is not undertaking something that is outside its jurisdiction altogether.

For instance, this money is deposited in certain banks which do business under Dominion charter. The provincial government might issue its mandate to the banks to hand over the money, but there seems to be room for doubt if they would be allowed, even if they were willing, to comply with the mandate.

The matter might arise in this way: Suppose that the Waterways Company should notify the banks not to pay the money, and suppose the provincial government should order the money paid, the banks would then be in the position that if they complied with the provincial government's demands they would still have to stand suit for recovery of the money by the Waterways company. This suit might be carried out in courts where the Alberta legislation would have no effect; New York—for instance. Should that company be successful in its suit, stockholders and depositors in all parts of the Dominion would be losers thereby.

Under such circumstances it is certain that the banks would be able to find something within the Dominion bank act which would protect their stockholders and creditors, and at any rate it is scarcely probable that they would pay over the money upon any consideration before the Alberta Act had received ratification at Ottawa, which would not be until a year after it was passed.

Considering this phase of the case it seems quite probable that ever should Premier Sifton pass his bill in the present form it could not be put into execution.

A CIVIC DANGER TO BE WATCHED

The annual financial statement of the city of Edmonton, which will be presented to the city council at its special meeting this afternoon, will show a surplus in the electric light department, after having provided for the deficit of $16,000 incurred last year, a surplus on the telephone department and water department and a deficit of $30,000 in the street railway department.

The showing made by the street railway will be likely to cause some apprehension and a good deal of criticism on the part of the ratepayers, and it will not be surprising if some thoughtless individuals arise to suggest that the utility be turned over to a corporation.

It is when the utilities meet a deficit that the really level-headed ratepayer is required to give ballast to the thoughts of the community.

The loss which the street railway has suffered in this, practically the first, year of its operation, is really a bagatelle compared to the value of the utility itself and can easily be made up next year. What the public-spirited citizens must watch for is an attempt to stampede the ratepayers into the belief that the street railway or any other utility could be better handled by a corporation.

JUST PARAGRAPHS

It is strange how Dan Mann drops around just at the psychological moment—just to make an informal social call.

Now that Dr. Cook has confessed that he really did not discover the pole, it is up to Mr. Cushing to say something.

Probably the opposition to the Calgary University Bill arises from the belief that the labor of educating Calgarians properly belongs to the missions to the heathens.

Michener is going to move an amendment to Premier Sifton's bill No. 65—which is the diversion act. Maybe Michener will propose that the money be used for buying planks for the Conservative platform.

John A. Macdougall says his stand on the railway question has been misrepresented by the newspapers. The charge cannot be confirmed or denied until the junior member says which particular stand he is referring to—the one for or the one against.

There is nothing like the compulsion of public opinion. Note the fact that it is now hinted that Premier Sifton has an alternative railway proposition. The premier could save a lot of time by trotting out his alternative so that the boys could have a look at it.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF EDMONTON:

Ladies and Gentlemen:
In submitting myself for election to the city council I do not advance any elaborate platform.

I shall, if elected, do my best to further the interests of the city and all its citizens as the questions arise for consideration.

Prosperity will come to the city with the development of the North and North West country by railway extension and land settlement, and I favor the use by the city of all its influence properly directed to have these objects accomplished.

I shall favor the adoption of whatever means will tend to secure to each individual an equal share in the prosperity which the city and the country may enjoy. I shall favor the adoption of such measures, municipal and legislative, as will prevent corporations whose prosperity was founded in monopoly from retarding the uniform development of the city and of all its utilities, and increasing its own wealth by the labor and enterprise of others.

When our present reasonably equitable system of taxation is sought to be improved it should be based more distinctly on the principle of causing the necessary burden of taxation on the principle of causing the necessary burden of taxation to impose on each individual the "minimum of sacrifice."

The greatest municipal encouragement should be given to technical education so that the highest skill in the useful arts, the methods of production and transportation—the basis of all wealth—should be attained by the youth of our city.

I favor the rigid adoption of all measures which will tend to prevent the growth in our new city of what is the blight of all older and larger cities: the unsanitary and unsightly condition of the congested quarters. The greatest possible municipal encouragement of all voluntary organizations designed for the bettering of the city, advancing of its prosperity, caring for the sick, the neglected and helpless, guiding and controlling the unmannered, the intemperate and the vicious, and lessening the dire evil of intemperance.

I look with favor on proposed efforts to prevent the Great Railway corporations from destroying the symmetry of the city and imposing communication from one part of it to the other without expensive subways and viaducts.

Nuisances and obstructions to growth in the city and should be removed, and better communication with the south established for that part of the city.

I believe in complete representative and responsible government in the city, as well as in the state. The Mayor, as the elected and responsible head of the city, must be the chief commissioner, enjoying the advantage of skilled assistance responsible to him and the council as they are to the people.

Details I leave till the questions are brought up for consideration.

Yours sincerely,
ALEX. STUART.

1st December, 1910.

ADDRESS.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE
CITY OF EDMONTON:

Having been requested by a large number of my friends to make the race for alderman of this city I have consented to become a candidate.

In presenting myself as a candidate I place before the ratepayers what I believe to be a number of the salient issues which should receive the attention of the men whom you select to represent you, and in consideration of which I ask support.

Should I be elected, the electors may rest assured that I will fight for the issues which in my opinion would tend towards the development of the greater Edmonton.

(1.) I am in favor of all civic work being done by day labor rather than by contract, as has been the custom in many departments in the past. If the contractors can make money or any certain piece of work there is no reason why the city can not save money by doing it by day labor. The city has all the necessary equipment and retains the department heads an expense which is met under any circumstance.

(2.) Referring what an east end bridge which would give more direct connection with the east end of Strathcona would be a great convenience and that it would bring a considerable amount of trade to the city, I am in favor of immediate construction of the same.

(3.) Proper business-like steps should be taken at once to reduce the deficit in the street railway department by increasing the earnings through a proper system of parks and park lines so that the system would be handling traffic in the summer evenings at a time when it is not now a heavy revenue producer. Following this method, street railway enterprises in other cities earn large dividends. There is no reason why the Edmonton system should not be made to pay its own expenses.

(4.) While it is acknowledged that Edmonton has one of the finest fire brigades and fire protection in the west, we still find that Calgary and Regina have lower fire insurance rates than we have. I believe that steps should be taken to secure the services of an expert from some board of underwriters who can point out to the city what remains to be done to secure better rates.

(5.) I believe that the city commissioners should be elected by the people and should hold office subject to a recall by a voted percentage of electors, taking the precautions adopted in Des Moines and other cities where this system is in vogue of requiring the petitioners to guarantee the cost of the election and meet the expense in case the recall fails.

(6.) I believe that the mayor and alderman, as well as the commissioners, should be subject to recall. With such a law in force a city official who violates his pledges might be removed from office and a successor elected who was prepared to do the ratepayers' bidding.

(7.) There are important points which should be given vital consideration at this stage of the city's history and of election. I assume the principle that these principles will be carried out to the letter if it is within my power.

Yours truly,
JOHN C. MACDONALD.

I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten yards without resting myself. Thousands of people go about their daily work on the verge of death and yet do not know it.

Little attention is paid to the slight weakness of the heart for the simple reason that one thinks it will right itself, but there is where the mistake is made. It is only when a violent shock comes that the weakness of the heart becomes apparent.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will soon produce a quick and permanent cure.

MUST CRUSH OUT ANARCHY

Although Revolution is Over
Mexico Has Some Work
Ahead

PILLAGING TOWNS

Many Rebels in Jail—$10,000
Reward Offered for Capture of Madero

Mexico City, Dec. 1.—With the Madero revolution practically crushed, the Mexican Government to-day found a task of great magnitude on its hands: That of crushing out the wave of anarchy which is following the wake of the rebellion. The bandits and desperados have handed with criminals released from jails, and, according to latest reports, they are attacking and pillaging small towns, driving off stock and doing great damage to private property. Federal troops were sent to-day to confiscate the Mexican property of Francisco Madero, upon whose head a $10,000 reward has been set by the Mexican Government.

Leader Disappears.
Madero has disappeared despite the efforts of soldiers, rangers and Government secret agents to find him. A great nation wide search was started for him to-day under the stimulus of the reward. Despite the reported quiet in the north and south and the rumor that Madero is so badly wounded that he cannot lead his troops, the belief was expressed to-day that the revolution is not entirely quelled notwithstanding the lack of organization among the rebel bands. According to the latest reports skirmishing is still going on around Torreon.

Another report stated that Mata-mos was in danger of attack, although War Minister Cosío to-day received advices from General Villaro, commanding the northern military zone, with headquarters at Monterey, that all was quiet around Matamoros and that his scouts brought no word of rebel hands.

Bands Still Active.
Bands of anarchists—the Government terms them—were active about Parral to-day. Word was sent that people were killed and their homes looted by stray bands of desperados, who taking advantage of the times, were killing and robbing at their pleasure.

Forces were under way from Durango to-day with orders to take no prisoners but to shoot down all rioters on sight.

Government agents to-day continued their activities throughout the states in the danger zone, buying up all the arms and ammunition they could find. They had acquired thousands of guns and millions of rounds of ammunition already.

Jails are all Crowded.
The jails are full to overflowing, and secret trails will soon be ordered by the Government. Following drastic policy of President Díaz it is fully expected scores will be executed.

A HOLIDAY PRIZE CONTEST

1st Prize—A $75.00 Phonola

HAVING just returned from a business trip among our manufacturers in the East, with the usual result that we have made arrangements to extend our operations throughout the entire Province of Alberta, and having placed orders for a tremendous number of pianos to be used during the year 1911, it becomes absolutely necessary for us to dispose of every instrument in our present stock before Jan. 1st.

To accomplish our purpose and create a little enthusiasm at this, the holiday season, we have decided upon a plan that will be of interest to every musically-inclined person who reads this advertisement.

Here Are the Conditions

READ THEM CAREFULLY

HOW MANY DOTS IN THIS BELL?

COUNT the number of dots contained in the "Bell," place the number in figures on a piece of paper, with your name, and address written plainly and inclose it in an envelope, addressed to the MASTERS PIANO CO., 423-425 Jasper Ave. West, Edmonton, Alta., and in one corner of the envelope write DEPARTMENT C. and mail it to us. ALL REPLIES MUST REACH OUR STORE BY SIX O'CLOCK P. M. SATURDAY, DEC. 10th, 1910. Remember ALL REPLIES MUST COME THROUGH THE MAIL, and every envelope must be marked DEPARTMENT C. All replies marked as above will be placed in a box unopened until after the contest closes, when they will be thoroughly stirred up, and drawn out one at a time. The first one with the correct number of dots will receive the $75 Phonola offered as first prize, together with a bond for $75, good to apply on any new piano in our stock absolutely free. The next correct number will receive the $35 Violin, and a bond for $35, and the third correct number will receive the $25 Guitar, and a bond for $25 absolutely free. To each of the next ten correct numbers, a bond for $10 will be issued. To each of the next twenty a bond for $100. To each of the next twenty a bond for $85 will be issued. To each of the next twenty a bond for $75, and to each of the next twenty a bond for $50 will be issued. These bonds will be accepted as so much paid on any new piano selected from our stock. The balance can be arranged for on easy payments if desired. In many cases we are quoting heavy discounts from our regular prices, which will continue until after this sale closes.

EQUALITY TO ALL

Holding the replies unopened until the contest closes gives our contestants who live at a distance an equal chance with those who live close at hand.

SASKATCHEWAN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Regina, Prince Albert, Saskatoon, Moose Jaw Composite Circuit.

Regina, Dec. 1.—There was a very enthusiastic meeting held in the King's hotel last evening to organize a Saskatchewan Hockey League. The following representatives were present: Saskatoon, Messrs. Baker, MacKinnon and Hare; Moose Jaw, Messrs. McMillan, Law and McKinnon; Prince Albert, Mr. Bellis; Regina, Messrs. Bright, Haddock, Galvin and O'Brien.

Considerable discussion took place on a motion put by W. J. Bright to open to the S. A. A. A. for affiliation. All present were unanimous for amateurs; were adverse to any other body having any jurisdiction over the league or its players. Moose Jaw, in particular, opposed the motion, which, however, carried.

The election of officers then took place and resulted as follows:
Patrons—Hon. Lieut.-Gov. G. W. Brown; F. B. Patton, Regina; Hon. A. McNab, Saskatoon; G. K. Smith, Moose Jaw.
President—E. J. McMillan, Moose Jaw.
Vice-president—Fred. Hunter, Prince Albert.
The secretary-treasurer, as it was deemed advisable to have the two offices occupied by men from the same city.

The executive committee will be composed of one representative from each club.

FEW MAKE WEIGHT

Attell, Couley, Kilbane, Kline and Kaufman are Only Legitimate Featherers.

There are only a few featherweights in the world today who can make the American weight limit—122 pounds. Among them are Champion Al Attell, Frankie Conley, Johnny Kilbane, Patsy Kline and Benny Kaufman. The rest box around 124 and cherereabouts. Some of them could get down to 122, but not without greatly damaging their strength.

These boys mentioned above are the cream of the featherweight class. Jim Driscoll, the English phantom, is to be considered but he can't do the recognized American limit.

MURPHY CALLS TINKER
Joe Tinker got a sharp rise out of his present employer, Charley Murphy, when he emitted a few sassy remarks about what he is going to do next year. Tinker, who is doing a vaudeville stunt in Chicago, was interviewed by his press agent in Johnny Evers's shoe store. "Show me the coin," spoke Joseph, "and I'll rubbergist to Fletcher's league or any old league. I'm not chained to the west side. Furthermore, if I stay I'll play third base, not short." Whereupon, Murphy, who had just oiled up his trusty typewriter to fire a broadside at Fletcher, cut the following into Joseph's teeth: "Manager Chance will tell Tinker just what position he shall fill. How does Tinker know but what a deal may be pending at this minute to send him in company with Fletcher Rabbe, to the Boston club in exchange for Patcher Cliff Curtis, Shorstop Bill Sweetney and Third Baseman Charley Herzog? And I won't deny that such a deal is being talked of."

It's easier to talk about dying for eight than to get busy living right.

ST. ANDREW'S CONCERT.

The anniversary of Scotland's patron saint was celebrated in Edmonton by a concert given by St. Andrew's society in the Separate school last night, and the local sons of the beaver turned out en masse in honor of the occasion. The concert itself was one of the most successful in the history of the society, the program being varied, artistic, and entertaining. There was a number of distinguished guests present, including Lieut. Governor Bulley, Premier and Mrs. Sifton, Hon. Duncan and Mrs. Marshall, Hon. C. R. and Mrs. Mitchell, Hon. A. A. McLean, Hon. P. E. Lessard; and a number of the members of the legislature. During the program a brief address was given by Rev. Dr. McQueen, chaplain of the society, who dwelt on the aims of the organization. Dr. McQueen read a message of greeting from St. Andrew's society, Edinburgh, and applause. The artists of the evening gave their services free with the exception of Miss Penelope Davies, of the Edmonton society of music, who sang. Her rendering of several old Scottish ballads were indeed artistic. Other contributors to the program were Mr. MacGregor, Miss Patterson, and several others.

The Sluicing club meets at Thistle rink at 8 p.m. this evening.

Had a Distressing, Tickling Sensation in The Throat.

COULD NOT SLEEP AT NIGHT.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is rich in the lung-healing virtues of the Norway pine tree. It is a pleasant, safe and effective medicine that may be confidently relied upon as a specific for Cough, Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Quinsy, and all Throat and Lung Troubles.

It will stop that tickling in the throat which causes the dry cough that keeps you awake at night.

Mrs. J. A. Smith, Marshville, Ont., writes: "I had a very bad cough and that distressing tickling sensation in my throat. It was so bad I could not sleep at night and my lungs were so sore I had to give up work."

"Our doctor gave me medicine but it did me no good, so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and by the time I had used two bottles I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends."

Do not be lulled into buying the so-called Norway Pine Syrup but insist on "Dr. Wood's." It is put up in a glass wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; the price 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
